EVANGELISTIC SERVICE. Large Congregation Hears Rev. P. C.

Wright's Sermon on Sin. There was a large attendance at the second in the series of evangelistic meetings which was held on Tuesday evening at the First Congregational church, Rev. C. H. Ricketts presided. The service opened with the singing of Lord, Is It I? by the chorus choir under the direction of President Arnold. Other hymns followed. Prayer was offered by Rev. Frank Fuller. Read Jerome Greer read the 53d chapter of Isaiah. This was followed by the soprano solo, Does Jesus Care? pleasingly rendered by Miss Louise H. Pratt.

H. Pratt.

Rev. P. C. Wright took for the subject of his address, Sin. He said:

No one present recognizes sin in its reality. That is an active reality in our lives. Sin undermines our life. No one here knows the meaning of sin as it touches human life. We must be saved from sin unto God and righteouspess. Protestants have for righteousness. Protestants have for fifty years said sin was doing this, sin was doing that, sin was doing the other, Jesus said, Sin was in the heart. He combatted the legalistic idea of sin. If your sins are forgiven and sin. If your sins are forgiven and you have peace it is for you to know if you put Jesus Christ on the throne of your life. The old dispensation said The soul that sinneth, it shall die. The new dispensation said, The wages of sin is death. This law is working yet. The soul that sinneth it shall die is just as much a law of the universe as the law of gravitation. We accommodate ourselves to the laws of life or we suffer. God will have all men to be saved. He does not want a wasted life. There are great opportunities in life. God knows the powers in you. God may bring out opportunities in life. God knows the powers in you, God may bring out powers in you that you never knew. God looks into your life of body and spirit and sees a man. This shows that the memory of you shall call up the memory of a noble life.

The closing hymn was Come, Every Soul with Sin Oppressed, The singing was of unusual spirit and helpfulness. The choir was accompanied by cornet and violin. H. L. Yerrington was organist. Rev. G. H. Ewing pronounced the benediction.

Rev. Joseph E. McCarthy to Preach. Rev. Joseph E. McCarthy of St. Patrick's church will preach the sermon at the Lenten service this (Wednes-
